Campfire Tales: Rose Character Sketch

Rose is exactly what her name is. A rose is beautiful but deadly by thorns. She has long brown curly hair with caramel skin and looks like a retired runway model. She's 40 years old with the look that can pass her off as a 30 year old. She's a gold digger who marries men for their money. She'll marry rich older men and then within the next 7 months they'll die of a mysterious death. She's been married and left as a rich widow five times. The police are starting to catch on to her so she decides to go away somewhere not so obvious. That's how she ended up at the camp.
