

Samuel was on a camping trip for the weekend with a couple collages for a work assignment on plants. Samuel is also an undercover assassin that been hired by a private company to kill few of his collages. Samuel is a smart and handy and helpful person he is most educated than the others. Samuel and the few others went to gather some woods for the fire for later. Little than they know it Samuel is familiar with the camp site they choose. John and Jacob are close friends with Samuel they were all Assassin at one time until they stop doing business because of there family so they become fire men instead. John and Jacob had secrets about assassin private club but they didn't know that Samuel had known there plan. Since they are trained fireman Samuel knew he could use them first to cut down trees for the fire. They went on a 5mile walk until they found the rite tree that Samuel picks. He told John and Jacob to start chopping the tree, Samuel then told the others to go along and find food when the others left he waited until there was out of sight then he took out his gun and shot both John and Jacob in their head. When the others return they asked about them but he told them that Jacob had a bad accident and John had taken him to the hospital. The day went on they went on hikes and colleted there data for the plants and they only had one night left. Samuel now has to come up with a new plan before morning to get rid of everyone. It didn't take long for Samuel to make a plan up he thought of poisoning the food so they all died together but also what if they don't eat that's also going to be problem. They gather fire together and everyone chip in to help started dinner, Samuel knows everything is being document so he has to follow guide lines to pull it off. Samuel sneaks some liquid toxins of some kind into the soup that's unrecognizable to detect by taste when the team wasn't looking. Dinner was finish everyone eat expect Samuel and this young girl who just started working with them, brought her dinner so Samuel had to figure out another plan for her. He waited up until she was asleep but that night she didn't sleep; she was having problems sleeping but then she remember that she had some pills in the car so she got up to go get them. She walk pass Samuel but she didn't know he was awake. Samuel then got up and follows her to her car, but then she saw the car John was driving and she knew that Jacob and John came together. She was confuse but then Samuel came and ask her can he help you and she said yes then Samuel grab her and started coking her then she tried pulling him, then the two of them started fighting back and forth he took his gun out when she got away and tried running away he shot her in the leg then in her heart she was dieing slowly while she was dieing she asked why did he did it and he shot her again but in the head. Later that morning Samuel was the only one woke up everyone was dead he pile up the bodies and burns them. He went back to work that following week and they boss ask where his team at is and then he told him that they left him on the road because he had a flat tire. His boss ok but the police is arriving in a couple of hours and they want to talk to everyone. When the police arrive the boss gave the officer a private room to continue the investigating in private. There are only 500 people working at Plant Observation Company, but only fifth-teen people only knew about the plant camping trip. The officer implied to have a close campus investigating over the loud speaker, but when Samuel heard that he remember that he goes home for lunch and today he can't. All employees went in for interviewed except Samuel they were waiting until he took his lunch first before interview. They waited and waited by his office for his return, he returns 15 min late. They followed him to the office until.....
