Campfire tales: Bobby Character Sketch

Bobby is sitting around the camp fire next to his girlfriend Maria. His warm hand is wrapped around her hand. He is wearing a blue hoodie, hood over head, dark blue ripped jeans, and black Nike sneakers. His beautiful bright green eyes are staring deeply into the fire. He is thinking about Maria's story she just mentioned to their friends. In her story something had happened to Maria and he wasn't with her so he felt guilty of what happened to her. He says to himself what if? "If I was there to help her she wouldn't of been in the hospital, she would have been able to go to Paris to see her grandmother, she wouldn't be afraid to leave her house."

Maria softly whispers in his ear to get his attention saying "Babe, are you listening?" he snaps out of his "daydream" and pays attention to his friend Anthony, who is now telling one of his own stories.
