

Esbar
February 20, 2006

English 11: 3
Character Sketch

The IMMIGRANT was a posh fellow. He stood out among the commuters with his red smoking jacket and blue, silk ascot. His mahogany pipe was a mandatory accessory and he regaled us with tales of his native land. His accent was Eastern European and caused him to emphasize the beginnings of each word. (Hello, water)