I just got done paying the Hollywood Mortuary. Unfortunately for my deceased son who was cremated today. He had sent some sort of private investigator named Tony Spagoni to track my every movement. I became aware of what my son was doing and began to make my own preparations to defend myself should he send a hit man after me or even attack me himself. I knew we have had rough relations in the past, but I never expected this. I had to pay him off once, but I didn't know he still held a grudge against me. He came after me himself with a gun, but he did not know I had one too and I was able to shoot him down. I felt terribly afterwards and got him to the nearby hospital as fast as I could. Unfortunately he lapsed into a coma. I paid for the best doctor I could find in the area to try and treat him, but he was unable to do anything for him. He died yesterday from the gunshot wound in his head. I now expect to be involved in a long legal battle.
